RADIO-ENERGIE Tachogenerators

TACHOGENERATORS

Radio-Energie, Europe's leading manufacturer of Tachogenerators, was founded in 1928 to produce electric generators and converters to supply power to radio telephonic and radio telegraphic receivers and transmitters; hence its name.

In 1949 Radio-Energie started to produce Tachogenerators for industry and have produced a wide range of high quality and reliable units ever since. The REO444R quickly established itself as the 'Industry Standard' and with its many options it quickly became the engineer's choice.
